

More than just Volleyball...We are a Family

Why does Dallas Premier Volleyball Club continue to remain a fixture at the top of the North Texas Region? Is it because we provide an environment that is right for most? We think so. We will admit that we are not for everybody, however if you want to become a better player and more importantly a better person then we may be the club for you. We will challenge you. We will get you in shape. We will get you exposure to collegiate programs. You will work hard! You will have fun and you will create long term friendships with players as well as coaches! You will earn self respect! You will learn to act like a Champion!

You will also find out that Dallas Premier Volleyball Club and The Volleyball Institute of Plano will provide you with a consistent and safe place to hang out and help you on your journey to becoming a better student athlete and a strong young woman. While we are talking about what we will do for you, we will also make sure that you become the best volleyball player you can be!

Why Dallas Premier?

You are going to be spending a lot of time and a lot of money on club volleyball. We think you should know what you are playing for!

To make the right club decision, make sure you know what your club does for you!

High Level of Training—Are your practices run by a full-time volleyball professional or are you stuck with a part-time coach? Are your practices planned or does your coach just “wing it”? Is there any technical training or is it just a lot of scrimmaging?

Staff—Does your club provide you with one coach or are there always 30+ coaches available to help you practice your skills? Do you get specific instruction from experts in your position?

Training Facility—Are your practices at different locations? Are you always waiting for another sport to finish or worse another team from another club waiting for you court time or vice versa? Does your schedule change without time to make it up. Do practices often get cancelled because of basketball games? Wouldn't it be nice to have the same practice times and the same days and never have to worry about cancellations? Do you have plenty of volleyballs, jump boxes or coaches on hand for questioning? Can you just drop by because you want to hit some balls or just hang out?

College Recruiting—Are you getting exposure to collegiate volleyball programs? What percentage of your athletes are offered collegiate scholarships? Do they play at these schools? Do they leave after a year? What does your club offer to help you in this very stressful and hectic time? How many coaches on your staff have been on both sides of the court as a club coach and a college coach? How many of them have been recruited and have actually recruited? How many fully understand the recruiting process? Do they put you where you fit or just what looks good on a website?

Private Lessons—When you would like to get better on a certain skill, can you do so? Do you have to sign up with a group and pay your coach as well as an additional rental fee to the facility? Do you leave your lessons blown away at how much fun you had as well as how much you have learned?

Pro Shop—Do you have access to knee pads (the good ones, not the turtle shells) when its time to get a new pair? Forgot your socks, can you get them before practice? Does your club have an online volleyball shop with most products (with great pricing) on hand and others just a click away?

Video Analysis—Do you have a place to watch video or to break down film from your lessons or matches? Do your coaches have the ability to film those lessons and show you your progress?

Camps and Clinics—Does your club offer camps or clinics? Do they offer all skills and all skill levels? Who runs those camps/clinics? Is it a coach or a volleyball professional?

I know it seems like a ton of questions, but you should know where you are sending your daughter and your money. How much time would you spend on any other kind of financial investment? So, if you can answer Yes to ALL of these questions then you understand what Dallas Premier is all about. We believe that our technical training, full time and coaching staff, facility and understanding of the process is the best in the DFW area. Everyone of our athletes that wants to improve will do so as a player and a person. We have done the research for you, so come check us out...you'll be glad you did!
